

CARRIAGE THEME FOR DINNER DANCE

Carriage lanterns, hung in the courtyard trees at the Portuguese Bend Riding Club for the annual dinner dance on Saturday evening, carry out the "carriage" theme of the event. Mrs. Paul Morgan, high on the ladder, hangs one of the lamps as Mrs. William Pultsevich puts on the chimney, and Mrs. Robert Pickard holds the ladder. Centerpieces of red and white carnations will be on the white-fringed red tablecloths and azaleas will be placed under the pine trees in the courtyard. (Press-Herald Photo)

Lady Lions Open Season With Spanish Dinner-Dance

Colorful pinatas, Spanish sombreros and straw Spanish angels will decorate the poolside and patio area at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, 28 Eastfield Dr. in Rolling Hills next Saturday evening when the Torrance Lioness Club entertains at its first social of the season "A Night in Old Spain."

Their husbands, members of the Torrance Lions Club, will be guests at this gala event.

Members will don casual brightly colored Spanish costumes and they and their guests will enjoy a cocktail hour prior to dinner.

The dinner, consisting of authentic Spanish foods, will be served at tables covered with red and white cloths and centered by straw angels. A background of Spanish music will be played throughout the cocktail and dinner hour.

Dancing will conclude the evening's festivities during which a Spanish dance contest will be held with prizes for the winner.

Their first social event was planned at a meeting of the Lioness club at the home of Mrs. Ross Morris in Torrance last Tuesday. Mrs. Louis Assink conducted the meeting.

Mrs. John Ritchie was appointed chairman of the social. She is being assisted by Mmes Louis Assink, Clarence Clark, Sam Van Wagner and Jack Smith.

Others attending Tuesday's meeting were Mmes Joe Bonando, Fred Boren, Paul Burnam, Byron Chan, Clarence Clark, A. F. Ewalt, Walter Keberlein, Ross Morris, Pete Radisch and Bob Williams.

PINATAS, SOMBREROS AND ANGELS

Gala Dinner Dance Saturday Evening

Portuguese Bend Horse Show on Weekend

A dinner dance in the courtyard of the Portuguese Bend Riding Club on Saturday evening will climax the first day's activities of the 1966 Portuguese Bend National Horse Show sponsored by the Peninsula Committee of Children's Hospital.

Mrs. Howard O. Coale, Jr. is chairman of the dinner dance and Mrs. Evan K. Shaw is president of the Peninsula Committee. Proceeds from the two day show, Saturday and Sunday, and the dinner-dance will go to the Children's Hospital of Los Angeles.

Theme for the party this year has been taken from the Evan K. Shaw carriage collection, which will be on display at the show. Party invitations are in black and white and depict a horse and carriage printed in the manner of the Old English wood block.

The carriage theme will appear in collage on the walls surrounding the buffet tables and carriage lanterns will be placed around the courtyard.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Joe Moshay and his orchestra.

Committee members assisting Mrs. Coale are Mmes Daniel H. Ridder, James Sims, Richard H. Learned, James Burke, Jr., Carl J. Gormiey, Laurence A. Green, Charles I. Houghton, Andrew D. Shaw, Lowell L. Dryden, John C. Friden, Jr., and Joseph J. Ventura.

The National Horse Show, presented for the ninth consecutive year by the Peninsula Committee for the benefit of the Children's Hospital, is one of the largest two day shows in the country.

The All-Junior Show on Saturday, open to riders under 18 years, will include three AHSA medal classes among 20 classes competing. Winners in the medal classes, provided they have won one additional medal within the year, will be eligible to enter competition in the national finals at Madison Square Gardens in the fall.

The Open Show on Sunday will have twelve stake classes competing along with two classes of hunters and jumpers. An addition this year will be the Green Working Hunter Stake Class.

Special event on Sunday will feature Evan K. Shaw and his Metlox Poppy Trail Carriage Collection. With his horse-drawn, steam driven fire engine, he will extinguish a blazing house set at the edge of the show ring. Nine pieces from this unique and interesting collection will be on display both days of the show.

The Children's Parade will be held on Sunday during intermission. This popular event challenges children, 12 years and under, to create original costumes for themselves and their animals. The entrants are judged in the categories of humor, originality, beauty and a fourth category called "spontaneous" for the spur-of-the-moment or late entrants. There is a sweepstakes for the over-all winner.

Television coverage of the show has been scheduled again this year by Channel 11, KTTV, on Saturday from 2 to 4 p.m.

Tickets for the event will be on sale at gaily decorated booths. Box seats will be available both Saturday and Sunday.

International Buffet

For Needlework Guild Neighbors

Sunday, Sept. 25, has been set as the date for the annual Neighborhood Gathering of the Surrey area section of the Peninsula Volunteers Needlework Guild. This year the party will be an international buffet and food tasting affair for which the many dishes are being donated by more than forty restaurants, wine merchants, and bakeries of the South Bay, San Pedro-Wilmington, and Peninsula areas.

The Theodore Brunsmas of Zero Rockinghorse Road will open their home with its beautiful pool and patio area for the Sunday afternoon party, which will start with cocktails at 5 o'clock.

There will be foods from restaurants specializing in Chinese, Swedish, English, Italian, Mexican, Yugoslavian, French, Polynesian, and of course American cookery, served with appropriate wines.

The committee preparing for this gala event includes the neighborhood chairman Mrs. Andrew Pope and her co-workers Mmes. Jack B. Bennett, E. W. Casagrande, Richard Childerhose, Robert Heath, Charles Henry, Foster James, P. Necko, J. H. Mueller, Richard Owens, Joseph Rubio, Edward Sack, Phillip Slater, and Donald Ulrich.

The committee members will act as hostesses at the party and will wear costumes suggesting far-away places. The decor will include travel posters and art objects from many lands.

Bay Harbor Guild

Schedules Annual Barbecue, Bazaar

"Las Vegas Night" is the theme chosen by the Bay Harbor Hospital Guild for its ninth annual Steak Barbecue and Bazaar to be held at the Ulabrand Hall, 1125 S. Gaffey, San Pedro next Saturday, Sept. 24. Hours are from 5 to 9 p.m.

Mrs. Olin Grubbs is serving as decorations chairman. The hall and tables will be decorated in large playing cards and oversized dice, in the red, black and gold colors.

The annual barbecue and bazaar is the guild's major fund raising event throughout the year and all proceeds are used to purchase life-saving equipment for the hospital.

Many decorative handmade articles have been made by the members under the chairmanship of Mrs. John Rados and her co-chairman, Mrs. J. F. Pilgreen. These articles will be sold during the dinner hours. Baked goods will also be for sale during the evening under the supervision of Mrs. Jack Hurley.

During the evening, a door prize, an expense-paid two night and two day trip to the Hacienda Hotel in Las Vegas, will be awarded.

General chairman for the barbecue is Mrs. M. J. Shepherd. Mrs. William D. Russell is dining room chairman. Gourmet chefs are Charles Crawford, Earl Johansen and Victor Oliveras.

Candystripers, directed by Mrs. Donald Houske, will assist at the dining tables.

The public is invited to attend the gala affair. Tickets may be secured by calling Mrs. Charles Crawford or Mrs. G. F. Lorge.
